

Revitalize: Thank You Notes

Did you know that we are told over and over to be thankful? I Chronicles 16:8 says, "Give thanks to the Lord, call on His name; make known among the nations what He has done." I know that a lot of people do 30 days of Thankfulness in November, but I've never jumped on that bandwagon. I know I would feel guilty if I missed a day or two and then it would be too hard to catch up and I would give up. And then I would be a failure and everyone would think I'm not very thankful.

But that's not true. I am thankful. I do give thanks to God all the time for stuff, even things most people wouldn't think about thanking Him for. So if you don't mind I think I'll write some thank you notes to God and others now.

Thank you God for my dogs...they always love my crocheted afghans!

Thank you for the random things that show up on my desk at work like the uncooked box of pizza rolls...it gives me great stories to share with the other church secretaries.

Thank you God for Charles Schultz...I still love Snoopy and the Peanuts gang.

Thank you God for Snicker Mini's...nuff said!

Thank you Hershey for putting Heath bars in the Halloween candy mix!

Thank you God for baby goat videos on Facebook...it's a great change of pace from silly cat videos.

Thank you God for the two-day break on road construction between my house and the church. ☹️

Thank you God for the Keurig in my office...it's taught me to pray in all circumstances!

Thank you God for giving me the gift of untangling the paper towel holders in the church...well it's a mixed blessing Lord!

Thank you God for my church family...It often feels like a scene from My Big Fat Greek Wedding without Nick, Nicolas, Nicki & Diane!

You can send me your thank you notes if you want, or post them on face book. It's a great way to share the little things that make you smile.
